

Jared P. Hancock

Jared P. Hancock joined Foundation Commercial in 2007 as an integral part of the retail leasing and tenant representation accounts. He is responsible for a portfolio of more than 600,000 square feet of new and existing retail space as well as several outparcels and land listings in the Greater St. Louis Metro area. Mr. Hancock actively represents both national and regional tenants throughout Missouri, Illinois, Northern Arkansas, Chicago, Kansas City, Detroit and South Florida.

Mr. Hancock serves as the National Real Estate Director for MassageLuxe International and prides himself on guiding area developers and franchisees through the challenging leasing process. This opportunity has led to experience outside of the local real estate movement. Mr. Hancock's enthusiasm and determination, paired with his continued education of retail trends and market news, makes him a valuable component to any leasing or tenant expansion project.

Graduating from Westminster College in 2007 with a degree in Business Finance, Mr. Hancock was the Vice President of the distinguished Blue Blazers Investment Club and proud member and leader of Beta Theta Pi.
